Regional Liaisons
3. Presentation: Pumps, Pipes and People—The History of Prescott's Water Supply by Michael King, retired Supervisor of the Prescott National Forest.

Mike is interested in researching and learning local and regional history. He is a volunteer and tour guide at the Sharlot Hall Museum and Prescott Chamber of Commerce. He also participates in numerous community service organizations such as the Yavapai Cemetery Association, Prescott Sunup Rotary, National Wild Turkey Federation and Sacred Heart parish. He serves on the City of Prescott's Parks and Recreation Advisory Board.

Mike became interested in the history of Prescott's water supply when he was doing research on the history of the origins of the designation of the Prescott National Forest. The designation is closely interwoven into Prescott's history.
